

What Your REALTOR® Does For You

In the sometimes confusing, occasionally hectic, and always stressful world of buying and selling, do you know what your REALTOR® is doing behind the scenes? Here are just a few ways your REALTOR® is working for you.

Researches Properties

Your REALTOR® spends time searching and learning about properties in order to find the right one for you.

Prospects

Your REALTOR® will visit properties and neighborhoods to learn more about potential homes for you.

Markets Properties

Selling agents spend time and money marketing listings including paid advertisements and attending networking sessions with other REALTORS®.

Writes Offers

Your REALTOR® will write up offers and counteroffers, keeping you on track with your transaction.

Attends Inspections

Your REALTOR® will attend inspections even if you can't, and will relay any issues to you immediately.

Keeps You Calm

It's a big investment, but your REALTOR® will help make it less stressful and smooth out bumps in the road.
