SAN ANTONIO (January 11, 2021) – The San Antonio Board of REALTORS® has announced its merger with the Uvalde Board of REALTORS®. The merger will combine the two organizations as one, and the Uvalde Board of REALTORS® is now officially the Uvalde REALTOR® Council, a division of the San Antonio Board of REALTORS®.

"SABOR always desires to grow stronger, and we believe this merger will bring new faces and a more expansive reach for all the members to include this region in greater professional opportunities," said SABOR's 2021 Board Chairwoman Cher Miculka.

Members of SABOR voted to approve the merger with the Uvalde Board of REALTORS® at a General Membership Meeting on December 3, 2020, while members of the Uvalde Board of REALTORS® voted to approve the merger during their General Membership Meeting on November 19.

"The merger makes great sense for us as San Antonio, Uvalde, and the surrounding communities and counties are continuing to flourish," said 2021 Chairwoman of the Uvalde REALTOR® Council Nancy Bennett.
